

Virgin Islands Waste Management Authority

Job Vacancy Announcement

Environmental Educator

St. Thomas

SALARY: $51,149.17

CLASSIFICATION: Classified

Open Until Filled

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Develops, solicits public comment and implements an environmental education plan for the Authority serving St. Thomas, St. Croix a St. John.
- Works with educators, business leaders, government officials and parents to build a coalition and/or committee dedicated to improving knowledge about the environment.
- Makes frequent presentations before school groups, classes and other organizations on the value of the environment and the importance of the mission of the Authority.
- Prepare educational materials and course curriculum and work with educators to integrate them into the education process.
- Organizes regular community environmental events to promote interest in protecting the environment.
- Host regular site visits to Authority operations for students and members of the public.
- Develops and maintain a good working relationship with government education officials, educators, and public opinion leaders.
- Performs other duties as assigned.

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE:

- High school diploma or GED is required from an accredited school.
- A degree in Education or Liberal Arts or Environmental Science is required from a four-year university.
- A minimum of two (2) years of relevant experience is required.
- One or more years of teaching experience is required.
- Knowledge of the local environment is required
- Equivalent combinations of education and experience may be considered.
- A valid US Virgin Islands driver's license is required.

Virgin Islands Waste Management Authority is an Equal Opportunity Employer

It's Our Home! Let's Keep It Clean!